Bima Danubrata Adhijoso joined SSEK in 2019 after having interned at the firm in 2018. Since joining SSEK, Bima has been actively involved in multiple complex cross-jurisdiction investment projects, the establishment of foreign investment companies in Indonesia and numerous commercial transactions, including mergers and acquisitions.

Bima has an exceptional knowledge of the Online Single Submission (OSS) system, the one-stop business licensing platform introduced by the Indonesian government.

Bima's projects include advising a Malaysian investment holding company on its acquisition of a substantial equity interest in a leading Indonesian logistics company, assisting a Chinese company that provides metal production and processing services with due diligence on a potential acquisition target in Indonesia and in the preparation of various agreements for the contemplated transaction, and producing a feasibility study for a US-based global leader in data center development for a contemplated greenfield data center investment in Indonesia.

Bima is a frequent participant in and speaker at workshops and seminars on the Indonesian legal sector and investing and doing business in the country. He was a guest lecturer at Parahyangan Catholic University in 2019. In 2020, Bima was a featured speaker at the HukumOnline Law Festival, and he helped lead the American Chamber of Commerce in Indonesia webinar "Indonesia's Omnibus Law: Simplifying Business Licensing and Investment Requirements." Bima spoke at the 2021 Indonesia Canada Chamber of Commerce webinar "FDI and Indonesia's New Investment List – Opportunity Knocks for Business." In 2022, Bima was named by regional education training platform ET-Asia a Rising Star Speaker of 2022.

Bima spent time as an exchange student in Singapore, Japan and South Korea. He is fluent in English and Indonesian.
