

Talitha Amanda Ekadhani

LinkedIn: www.linkedin.com/in/talitha-amanda-ekadhani-105290170

Email: talithaekadhani@ssek.com

Talitha Amanda Ekadhani focuses on mergers and acquisitions, arbitration and dispute resolution, and corporate and commercial law.

Prior to joining SSEK, Talitha spent two years at an international-affiliated law firm in Jakarta, where she was involved in various corporate and commercial matters, with a focus on M&A transactions, foreign direct investment, arbitration and dispute resolution, as well as licensing and regulatory compliance in various business sectors.

At university, Talitha was an avid mooter and actively participated in the Asian Law Students' Association, where she held a leadership position. During her third year of undergraduate studies, Talitha was named Most Outstanding Student of the Gadjah Mada University Faculty of Law.

During her free time, Talitha enjoys reading and writing. Several of her law articles have been published and presented at an international symposium in Japan.

Talitha is fluent in English and Indonesian.

Education

- Gadjah Mada University, S.H. (cum laude), 2019

