Eugenia Leonetta (Leon) has been involved in a variety of projects at SSEK, with a focus on litigation and dispute resolution, labor compliance and employment disputes, personal data protection and private electronic system providers, as well as various corporate due diligence exercises.

Leon has a strong background in advocacy and public speaking. While at the University of Indonesia, she was an accomplished debater, consistently ranking at the top of national speaker tabs. She represented Indonesia at several international tournaments, including the World Universities Debating Championship in South Korea, where she was the highest-scoring Indonesian delegate. Leon also served as President of the University of Indonesia's English Debating Society, the country's oldest and largest debating organization, and later sat on its Board of Advisors for three years.

Leon is fluent in English and Indonesian.
