Ahmad Ramadinan Saptara (Dinan) assists clients in litigation, arbitration, and investigations.

Prior to joining SSEK, Dinan spent three years at another leading firm in Jakarta, where he had acted for clients, including multinational companies and Indonesian state-owned enterprises, in litigation before Indonesian courts and arbitration at BANI and LAPS SJK. He had successfully represented stock brokerage firms in multiple high-value securities arbitrations at LAPS SJK connected with the 2020 Jiwasraya financial scandal. Dinan had also advised clients on complex anti-corruption, white collar, and corporate crime investigations.

Dinan is fluent in English and Indonesian.
